RESOLUTION PROCLAIMING OCTOBER 5TH, 1992 AS CHILD HEALTH IMMUNIZATION DAY AND OCTOBER 5TH THROUGH 9TH, 1992 AS NATIONAL IMMUNIZATION WEEK.

WHEREAS, the President of the United States is authorized by Joint Resolution of the Senate and House of Representatives to proclaim Child Health Immunization Day - October 5, 1992 and National Immunization Week - October 5 - 9, 1992; and

WHEREAS, this year's theme Infant Immunization Initiative reaffirms our resolve that all of Arizona's children should be protected from Vaccine Preventable Diseases that might threaten their life and health.

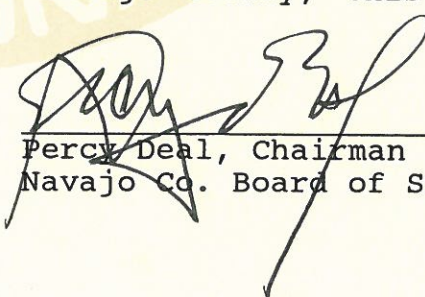

Providing a safe, disease free environment for our children is of paramount importance to us as parents and families. It must also become an imperative to which we devote the intelligence and the resources of our communities and our state; and

WHEREAS, we have a wealth of knowledge about the effective prevention of childhood diseases, we continue to have outbreaks of vaccine preventable diseases that take their toll on the lives and health of children under 2 years; and

WHEREAS, the Arizona Department of Health Services, the Governor's Office for Children, County Health Departments, prepaid Health Plans, the Arizona Medical Association, the Arizona Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics, Arizona Health Care Cost Containment System, non-profit community based organizations, and many private companies have joined as partners for the prevention of the assaults on infants and toddlers by Vaccine Preventable Diseases; and

On Child Health Day 1992, and throughout the year, we must emphasize the importance of childhood immunizations and take the necessary steps to make such immunizations available to all infants and children when they are appropriate.
